ADMINISTRATION AND ENFORCEMENT

§ 90.001 ANIMAL CONTROL OFFICER; AUTHORITY.

In accordance with the laws of the State of Arizona, the Town of Colorado City is enabled to adopt regulations designed to promote the public health, safety and general welfare of its citizenry. The position of Animal Control Officer is hereby created and vested with authority to perform the duties and authority to enforce the provisions of this chapter.

(Ord. 2007-3, passed 7-16-2007)

§ 90.002 ANIMAL CONTROL OFFICER; ENFORCEMENT.

(A) The Animal Control Officer or deputy thereof assigned to duties which include the enforcement of animal control laws shall be responsible for enforcing the provisions of this chapter.

(B) Each of the individuals referred to in this section shall have the power to issue citations for violations of this chapter and to swear to complaints for those violations when appropriate.

(Ord. 2007-3, passed 7-16-2007)

§ 90.003 INVESTIGATIONS; RIGHT OF ENTRY.

The Animal Control Officer, Public Health Officer and any Town Peace Officer may enter upon privately owned land to investigate reports of vicious or dangerous animals, rabies or other contagious animal diseases and to investigate violations of this chapter.

(Ord. 2007-3, passed 7-16-2007)

§ 90.004 PURSUIT; RIGHT OF ENTRY.

In the enforcement of any of the provisions of this chapter, the Animal Control Officer or his or her deputy may enter upon the premises of any person to take possession of registered or unregistered, fierce, dangerous or vicious animals when in fresh pursuit of the animal at the time the animal goes onto private property.

(Ord. 2007-3, passed 7-16-2007)

§ 90.005 INTERFERENCE WITH OFFICER PROHIBITED.

(A) It is unlawful for any person to interfere with, molest, hinder or prevent the Animal Control Officer from discharging his or her duties.

(B) Any person who hinders, delays, interferes with or obstructs an Animal Control Officer, while the Officer is engaged in capturing, securing or taking to the animal shelter any animal or animals to be impounded, or who breaks open or in any manner directly aids, counsels or advises in the breaking of any animal shelter or vehicle used for holding, collecting or conveying any animals to the shelter, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

(Ord. 2007-3, passed 7-16-2007) Penalty, see § 90.999

§ 90.006 PUBLIC NUISANCE DECLARED.

(A) The introduction, possession or maintenance of any animal; or allowing of any animal to be in violation of this chapter is, in addition to being a misdemeanor, declared to be a public nuisance.

(B) The Animal Control Officer and his or her deputy are empowered and authorized to abate the public nuisance by any means reasonable, including, but not limited to, the impounding of the animal in an appropriate shelter, the taking of the animal by humane means for impoundment, or the destruction of the animal or animals involved.

(Ord. 2007-3, passed 7-16-2007) Penalty, see § 90.999

§ 90.007 DEFINITIONS.

For the purpose of this chapter, the following definitions shall apply unless the context clearly indicates or requires a different meaning.

ANIMAL. Any animal of a species that is susceptible to rabies, except humans.

ANIMAL CONTROL OFFICER. That person who is responsible for the enforcement of the rules adopted under this subchapter. Town police Officers shall act as ANIMAL CONTROL OFFICERS.

AT LARGE. Being neither confined by an enclosure nor physically restrained by a leash.

IMPOUND. The act of taking or receiving into custody by the Animal Control Officer any dog or other animal for the purpose of confinement in a pound in accordance with the provisions of this subchapter.

IMPOUND FACILITY. Any establishment authorized by the town for the confinement, maintenance, safekeeping and control of dogs and other animals that come into the custody of the Animal Control Officer.

KENNEL. Premises where more than 4 dogs are raised, housed or boarded.

LIVESTOCK. Net animals, horses, sheep, goats, swine, mules and donkeys.

VICIOUS ANIMAL. Any animal that has a propensity to bite, scratch, or inflict injury to or to otherwise endanger the safety of human beings without provocation, or that has been so declared after a hearing before a justice of the peace or a city magistrate. Any animal that has a propensity to approach human beings without provocation in a menacing or terrorizing manner so as to confine the movement of or instill fear in a reasonable person. One incident of causing injury may be sufficient to establish a propensity.

(Ord. 2007-3, passed 7-16-2007)

DOG LICENSES

§ 90.020 DOG LICENSES REQUIRED.

(A) It is unlawful for any person to own, keep, harbor or maintain within city limits of the city, any dog which has attained the age of 3 months, unless and until the dog has been duly licensed and registered as provided in this chapter. All dogs must be licensed with the town, within 30 days after the dog is brought into the town.

(B) Before a license is issued for any dog, the owner must present a vaccination certificate stating the owner's name and address and giving the dog's description, date of vaccination and type, manufacturer and serial number of the vaccine and date revaccination is due. No dog shall be licensed unless it is vaccinated in accordance with the provisions of this subchapter.

(C) (1) Each dog licensed under the terms of this subchapter shall receive, at the time of licensing a tag on which is inscribed the name of the town, the number of the license and the year in which it expires.

(2) The tag shall be attached to a collar or harness which shall be worn by the dog at all times except as otherwise provided in this subchapter.

(3) Whenever a dog tag is lost, a duplicate tag shall be issued upon application by the owner and payment of replacement fee.

(4) License tags and current rabies tags are not transferable from one dog to another.

(5) Every owner shall be required to provide each dog with a collar or harness to which the current license and current rabies vaccination tag are attached.

(D) It is unlawful for any person to counterfeit or attempt to counterfeit an official dog tag or remove the tag from any dog for the purpose of willful and malicious mischief or place a dog tag upon a dog unless the tag was issued to that dog.

(Ord. 2007-3, passed 7-16-2007) Penalty, see § 90.999

§ 90.021 LICENSE FEES.

The license required by § 90.020 above shall be issued by the Police Department upon payment by the applicant of a fee established by resolution of the Town Council. The license fees shall be paid for each dog kept within the town limits.

(Ord. 2007-3, passed 7-16-2007)

§ 90.022 TERM OF LICENSE.

The licensing period shall be one calendar year; January 1 through December 31.

(Ord. 2007-3, passed 7-16-2007)

IMPOUNDMENT AND DISPOSITION

§ 90.035 RELINQUISHING AN ANIMAL.

Any stray animal must be relinquished to the Animal Control Officer within 24 hours. Any person who relinquished an animal to the Animal Control Officer shall give his or her name, address and if he or she is not the owner, the location where he or she found the animal.

(Ord. 2007-3, passed 7-16-2007) Penalty, see § 90.999

§ 90.036 NOTIFICATION OF OWNER OF RECORD.

Upon receipt of a lost or stray animal bearing a current tag or other identification, the Animal Control Officer shall notify the owner of the record, by telephone or at the address indicated on the license form, of the location of the animal. Compliance with notice requirements of this chapter shall be deemed as met if the Animal Control Officer has contacted the owner or owner's representative by phone or mailed the notice to the owner of record at his or her address of record.

(Ord. 2007-3, passed 7-16-2007)

§ 90.037 RELEASE OF ANIMAL TO OWNER.

The owner of an impounded animal may claim it prior to its legal disposition by providing proper identification, meeting all legal requirements and paying the applicable redemption fees for impoundment, board, medical care, sterilization, vaccination and/or other costs.

(Ord. 2007-3, passed 7-16-2007)

§ 90.038 HOLDING PERIOD; DISPOSITION.

(A) The Animal Control Officer shall hold an impounded, lost or stray dog for not less than 3 working days if it was not wearing a current license tag when impounded, and for not less than 5 working days after notice is given pursuant to this chapter if it was wearing a current license tag, so that the owner or custodian may claim it prior to other disposition.

(B) The Animal Control Officer may dispose of humanely, or transfer to a new owner upon payment of the applicable fee, any impounded animal not claimed by its owner or custodian within the prescribed holding time. Charitable organizations such as animal shelters taking unwanted animals may be exempt from fees and release agreements. Animals relinquished by their owners may be humanely destroyed without regard to the prescribed holding time in order to alleviate suffering or to protect other impounded animals from exposure to contagious diseases.

(C) The adopting party, or the owner seeking release of their dog, must sign an agreement to have the animal vaccinated within 30 days or before 6 months of age, and deposit with the town, an amount as outlined in the fee schedule, to ensure that the animal will be vaccinated and licensed. An owner seeking the release of an unlicensed dog may receive a citation for failure to have the dog licensed and /or animal at large. The town shall refund to the adopting party any monies deposited pursuant to the agreement if within the time provided in the agreement there is presented a written statement signed by a licensed veterinarian that the adopted dog has been vaccinated. If the adopting party or owner does not vaccinate the animal and provide a receipt to the town within 30 days, the fee is forfeited to the town and the owner may receive a citation for not having the dog licensed .

(D) The Animal Control Officer may utilize the impound facility or services of the town, the county, state or any other appropriate facility as needed.

(E) If the owner of a large animal or livestock is unknown or cannot be located, the Animal Control Officer may transfer the animal to the state livestock officer or sell the animal at a public auction following state guidelines.

(Ord. 2007-3, passed 7-16-2007)

COMMUNICABLE DISEASE

§ 90.050 HARBORING DISEASED ANIMAL PROHIBITED; DISPOSAL.

(A) No person shall knowingly harbor or keep any dog or other animal with a serious injury or afflicted with mange, ringworm, distemper or any other contagious disease, unless the dog or other animal is, in the opinion of the Animal Control Officer, or veterinarian, being given adequate, treatment for the disease.

(B) The Animal Control Officer or veterinarian may take immediate possession of any such animal not being treated or which is not responding to the treatment and immediately dispose of the animal unless the owner forthwith places the animal under the control and treatment of a licensed veterinarian.

(Ord. 2007-3, passed 7-16-2007) Penalty, see § 90.999

§ 90.051 RABID ANIMAL; REPORTING.

(A) Reporting of bites. All persons bitten, and the parents or guardians of minor children bitten by a dog, cat, skunk, fox, bat, coyote, bobcat or other animal known to constitute a serious threat of rabies shall notify the Animal Control Officer immediately thereafter. Physicians treating such bites and other persons having the knowledge of the bites are also required to make that notification.

(B) Reporting of suspected rabid animals. Any person who observes or has knowledge of an animal which shows symptoms of rabies, or which acts in a manner which would lead to a reasonable suspicion that it may have rabies, shall notify the Animal Control Officer and comply with appropriate laws and regulations regarding suspected cases of rabies as directed by the County Health Department.

(Ord. 2007-3, passed 7-16-2007) Penalty, see § 90.999

§ 90.052 RABID ANIMAL; ISOLATION.

Upon the reasonable order of the Animal Control Officer or Public Health Officer, a biting or suspected rabid animal shall be isolated, at the owner's expense if owned, in strict confinement under proper care and under the observation of the Animal Control Officer or in another adequate facility in a manner approved by the Animal Control Officer or the County Health Department.

(Ord. 2007-3, passed 7-16-2007)

§ 90.053 EUTHANASIA FOR TESTING.

(A) Any biting or suspected rabid animal may be humanely euthanized immediately by the Animal Control Officer or the Department of Health, and such animals undamaged and properly packaged and properly refrigerated head shall be delivered promptly to an approved medical facility having the capability of performing the fluorescent antibody test to demonstrate the presence of rabies.

(B) Division (A) above notwithstanding, if the biting or suspected rabid animal is of the domesticated variety that is owned or obviously could have an owner, that animal shall be confined as set forth in § 90.052 above for a period of 5 days to allow time for an attempt to locate an owner, unless the county veterinarian or other licensed veterinarian reasonably deems it necessary to sacrifice the animal for the purpose of laboratory examination.

(Ord. 2007-3, passed 7-16-2007)

ANIMAL CARE AND CONTROL

§ 90.065 CONDITIONS OF OWNERSHIP.

Animal owners and keepers must comply with the following conditions of animal ownership, and the Animal Control Officer may require the owners or keepers, as a condition of licensing, to sign a contract agreeing to comply with such conditions:

- (A) Animals shall be restrained or confined as required by law;
- (B) Animals shall be humanely treated at all times;
- (C) Vaccinations, licenses and permits shall be obtained as required by law;

(D) Animal premises shall be kept sanitary and shall not constitute a fly breeding reservoir or source of offensive odors or human or animal disease; and

(E) Animals and animal premises shall not be permitted to disturb the peace or constitute a public nuisance or hazard.

(Ord. 2007-3, passed 7-16-2007) Penalty, see § 90.999

§ 90.066 APPLICABILITY TO NON-RESIDENTS.

The licensing requirements of this chapter shall not be construed to affect persons not residing in the town who temporarily visit the town and own a dog or any other animal; provided that the person shall meet the other requirements of this code including constantly keep the dog or animal under his or her personal care and not allow the same to run at large. Every non-resident dog must be identifiable.

(Ord. 2007-3, passed 7-16-2007) Penalty, see § 90.999

§ 90.067 RESTRAINT OF ANIMAL BY OWNER.

Persons owning, keeping or harboring any dog, horse, cow, swine, sheep, goat, mule or donkey or similar animal shall at all times keep the animals on leash or within an enclosed area on their own property or private property of another with permission of the owner thereof, and shall not permit the animal to run at large at any time within the town, to bite or harass any person engaged in a lawful act, to interfere with the use of another person's private property, or to be in violation of other sections of this chapter.

(Ord. 2007-3, passed 7-16-2007) Penalty, see § 90.999

§ 90.068 POSSESSION OF VICIOUS OR DANGEROUS ANIMAL.

(A) The possession of a vicious or dangerous animal is unlawful unless it is restrained, confined or muzzled so that it cannot bite or attack any person or animal. Animals held in violation of this section shall be deemed a public nuisance, and their continued possession or ownership shall be unlawful. The Animal Control Officer may impound any such animal and dispose of it in a humane manner, after 3 working days to allow for legal restraining action by the owner. Possession of a hybrid wolf is unlawful within town limits.

(B) Any Animal Control Officer is authorized to kill any dangerous animal of any kind when it is necessary for the protection of any person or property, or the animal cannot be safely impounded.

(Ord. 2007-3, passed 7-16-2007) Penalty, see § 90.999

§ 90.069 DOGS PROHIBITED IN CERTAIN PUBLIC PLACES.

(A) It is unlawful for a person owning, keeping or harboring any dog to permit the same to enter or be in any public school building while school is in session or to enter in any place of worship or any public building without the express written consent or permission of the appropriate authorities or officials. The owner or custodian of a dog must restrain and control the dog at all times when in a public park by securing the dog with a leash. The owner or custodian of a dog is responsible for the acts and conduct of the dog at all times.

(B) Service animals, including guide dogs and dogs trained to assist individuals with disabilities, are permitted to enter a public place. It is not discriminatory to exclude a service animal from a public place if 1 or more of the following apply:

(1) The animal poses a direct threat to the health or safety of others;

(2) The animal fundamentally alters the nature of the public place or the goods, services or activities provided; and/or

(3) The animal poses an undue burden.

(C) A service animal handler is liable for any damage done to a public place by the service animal or service animal in training.

(Ord. 2007-3, passed 7-16-2007) Penalty, see § 90.999

§ 90.070 DISTURBING THE PEACE PROHIBITED.

(A) No person shall own or harbor any animal in such a manner that the peace and quiet of the public is unreasonably disturbed. The peace and quiet of the public may be disturbed, for example, by habitual barking and the like. For the purposes of this section, the term HABITUAL BARKING shall be defined as barking for repeated intervals of at least 5 minutes with less than 1 minute of interruption. The barking must also be audible off of the owner's or caretaker's premises.

(B) The written affirmation by 2 persons having separate residences that the violation disturbs the peace and quiet of those persons shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of this section.

(C) It is unlawful to harbor or keep any animal or fowl which disturbs the peace by unreasonable odors or loud noises at any time of the day or night. Any frequent or long-continued dog barking between 10:00 p.m. and 6:00 a.m. is prima facie evidence of a violation of this section; provided, however, that nothing contained in this section shall be construed to apply to reasonable noise emanating from legally operated animal hospitals, pounds, farm and/or agricultural facilities or areas where keeping of animals or fowl is authorized by a permit.

(D) The destruction by animal of property other than that which belongs to the owner of the animal shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of this section.

(Ord. 2007-3, passed 7-16-2007) Penalty, see § 90.999

§ 90.071 FEMALE DOGS IN HEAT.

Dog owners shall securely confine their female dogs while in heat, within an enclosure in a manner that will prevent the attraction of male dogs to the immediate vicinity.

(Ord. 2007-3, passed 7-16-2007)

§ 90.072 ABANDONING SICK OR DISABLED ANIMALS.

(A) It is unlawful for any person to abandon or turn out at large, any sick, diseased or disabled animal. These animals shall, when rendered worthless by reason of sickness or disability, be disposed of by owner thereof as provided in § 90.075 below for the disposition of dead animals within the city.

(B) It shall be the duty of the Animal Control Officer of the town to dispose of any animals found running at large within the town which are worthless from sickness, disease or other disability.

(Ord. 2007-3, passed 7-16-2007) Penalty, see § 90.999

§ 90.073 REMOVAL AND DISPOSITION OF DEAD ANIMALS.

(A) It is unlawful for the owner of any animal or fowl that dies or is killed within the town to fail to remove or bury the carcass of the animal within 10 hours after its death.

(B) No horse, cow, ox or other large animal shall be buried within the closely inhabited portion of the town.

(Ord. 2007-3, passed 7-16-2007) Penalty, see § 90.999

§ 90.074 RENDERING ASSISTANCE TO ANIMALS.

(A) Any person who, as the operator of a motor vehicle, strikes a domestic animal shall stop and render such assistance as may be reasonably possible, and shall immediately report the injury or death to the animal's owner.

(B) In the event the owner cannot be located, the operator shall at once report the accident to the appropriate law enforcement agency.

(Ord. 2007-3, passed 7-16-2007)

§ 90.075 EMERGENCY PROCLAMATION.

The Mayor, upon reasonable apprehension of danger from mad or rabid dogs, may issue a proclamation forbidding dogs of every description from running at large, and after the proclamation has been issued 24 hours, any dog found running at large in the city, not securely muzzled, may be destroyed by the Animal Control Officer.

(Ord. 2007-3, passed 7-16-2007)

§ 90.076 LIABILITY FOR AT-LARGE ANIMALS.

(A) It is unlawful for the owner or any person having the charge, care, custody or control of any animal to allow the animal to be at large at any time within the town limits.

(B) The owner or custodian of any animal which is at large shall be strictly liable for a violation of this section, regardless of the precautions taken to prevent the escape of the animal and regardless of the lack of knowledge of the offense at the time it occurs.

(C) Injury to any person or damage to any property by a dog while at large shall be the full responsibility of the dog's owner or person or persons responsible for the dog when such damages were inflicted.

(Ord. 2007-3, passed 7-16-2007) Penalty, see § 90.999

§ 90.077 DOGS ATTACKING PERSONS AND ANIMALS.

(A) It is unlawful for the owner or person having the charge, care, custody or control of any dog to allow the dog to attack, chase or worry any person, domestic animal or any domestic fowl.

(B) For the purpose of this chapter, the following definition shall apply unless the context clearly indicates or requires a different meaning.

WORRY as used in this section, means to harass by tearing, biting or shaking with teeth.

(Ord. 2007-3, passed 7-16-2007) Penalty, see § 90.999

§ 90.078 CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.

Any person who, within the town, maliciously kills, maims or wounds any animal which is the property of another, or who maliciously or cruelly beats, tortures or injures or harasses any animal, whether belonging to himself or herself or another, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(Ord. 2007-3, passed 7-16-2007) Penalty, see § 90.999

§ 90.079 POISONING ANIMALS.

Any person who willfully, unlawfully and maliciously administers any poison to any animal which is the property of any other, or who maliciously exposes any poisonous substance with intent that the same shall be taken or swallowed by any such animal, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(Ord. 2007-3, passed 7-16-2007) Penalty, see § 90.999

§ 90.080 ENCOURAGING ANIMALS TO FIGHT.

It is unlawful for any person within the town to in any manner whatever encourage or urge dogs or any other animals or fowl to fight, or to urge them after they commence to fight.

(Ord. 2007-3, passed 7-16-2007) Penalty, see § 90.999

§ 90.081 KEEPING WILD ANIMALS AND REPTILES.

Any person possessing any wild animal, reptile or wild fowl, within the town, must adhere to all state regulations, and all the wild animals, reptiles or wild fowl shall be kept under proper confinement on the premises and shall not be allowed to run at large, and shall be maintained on the premises or private property of the owner in such a manner as not to endanger the life or limb of any person lawfully entering the premises.

(Ord. 2007-3, passed 7-16-2007) Penalty, see § 90.999

§ 90.082 ANIMAL PACKS.

(A) In the event that cats or dogs or other animals shall form into a pack as to cause a nuisance or a possible health hazard, the Police Department shall be notified immediately.

(B) If the problem cannot be otherwise alleviated in a reasonable period of time then the Animal Control Officer may cause to have the pack of animals disposed of or humanely destroyed.

(Ord. 2007-3, passed 7-16-2007)

§ 90.083 ANIMAL WASTE.

The owner of every animal shall be responsible for the removal of any excreta deposited by his or her animal or animals on public walks, street, parks, recreation areas and other public areas, or on the private property belonging to another.

(Ord. 2007-3, passed 7-16-2007) Penalty, see § 90.999
